Praying for America

Since our last newsletter the country has witnessed an assassination attempt on former President Donald Trump. There are many unanswered questions surrounding that event as the country attempts to work through what promises to be a tumultuous election cycle.

Beyond the bickering that normally surrounds our political process it is essential believers discern the deeper reality facing our nation. We are experiencing a great spiritual struggle for the preservation of freedom.

While the normal process of casting an informed vote is essential if we are to hold back the onslaught of tyranny, the greater need is prayer. We must marry the two together.

Will you pray for your nation? Will you seek the Lord for his mercies? Will you ask the Lord to push back the evil threatening our freedoms?

As we pray, our heart needs to focus on God's grace. He can show us favor as he deals with those bent on wickedness and evil. To encourage your heart revisit Psalm 37 as you pray.

Thank you for praying and may the Lord show us mercy in my prayer.

President, CBM
