Pray for Those In Authority

As you know a lot of change is coming to America and some citizens do not like it. Like our fellow citizens, as believers we also have opinions about public policy and rightfully so. After all, we are to function as stewards of our Constitutional Republic. Consequently, we cannot remain silent when moral issues surface in the public arena.

Certainly some elements of politics are distasteful and certainly believers are not called to stoop to inappropriate language or unnecessary contention.

However, we need to remember the instruction found in Romans chapter 13 which says:

"Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God . . . For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil" (Romans 13:1, 3-4).

Think carefully about these words and may the Lord help us be godly citizens that strengthen our nation with prayer and righteous living. Amen!

Series in the Gospel of Luke Continues in Chapter Nine

Please join us for an uplifting hour of "live" worship each Sunday at 10:30 am on WGGN and WLLA (as well as our streaming services; visit cbmtoday.org for information).

We are currently in chapter nine as we travel through this gospel verse by verse. Join us and invite others to do the same.
