Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross

A famous hymn by Fanny Crosby begins with these words familiar to many Christians:

*Jesus, keep me near the cross,
There a precious fountain;
Free to all, a healing stream,
Flows from Calv'ry's mountain.*

As we approach the Easter season our minds are compelled to travel back to a hill called Calvary where our blessed Savior died for the sins of the world

During this solemn season the work our Savior accomplished during the hours of suffering on the cross once again humbles our heart. Thankfully, his saving work provides a healing stream of mercy that forever flows from the heart of God!

Indeed, his precious blood cleanses the vilest sinner who believes and makes him whole and clean. The old leprosy of sin is washed away and in Christ the redeemed are declared holy and clean.

The chorus of the famous hymn goes on to say:

*In the cross, in the cross
Be my glory ever,
Till my ransomed soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.*

Amen! We will glory in the cross of Christ because his redeeming work has secured our salvation. Praise his name!

May the Lord bless you and draw you to himself in a special way this season is my prayer.
