Israel and the End Times

I am sure you are aware of the recent conflict between Israel and Iran. Earlier this month after final efforts to secure an agreement to end the development of nuclear weapons in Iran, Israel proceeded to implement military attacks to destroy the threat posed by the Iranian nuclear program.

Beyond the threat of nuclear annihilation, why should we care about Israel? Well, believers have good reason to care about Israel.

First, the Word of God makes it clear Israel is God's chosen people (Deuteronomy 7:6; 14:2). The Lord formed the nation of Israel and proceeded to give the world a savior through the nation.

Indeed, through the seed of Abraham (a reference to Christ) all the families of the earth are blessed (Gen. 12:1-3). My friend, pertaining to the flesh the Savior of the world is a Jew.

At his birth he was recognized as the King of the Jews (Matt. 2:2). That he is, and this is one reason every Christian should care about Israel. One day our Savior will reign over Israel and the world from his throne in Jerusalem!

The Lord's prophetic program for Israel ultimately leads to the return of Christ at the end of the predicted tribulation period. Well then, as we see the day approaching let us live with a joyful expectation of our Lord's return. Let us serve him diligently until he comes. Amen!
