We Possess Hope Even as the World Grows Darker

I am sure you notice the growing lawlessness in our nation and the constant restlessness in the world as we teeter on the brink of major war.

Couple with that the normal challenges of life as loved ones grow older and personal battles with our own health occur, and in short order a sense of unexpected anxiety can trouble the heart.

Yet in the face of life's challenges believers can hide themselves in a place of security found in the hope we possess in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Notice the strong emphasis on our hope in Christ found in the book of Romans where we read:

"Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer" (Romans 12:12).

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures (the Word of God) might have hope" (Romans 15:4).

"Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost" (Romans 15:13).

Paul was no stranger to trouble, but he rejoiced in hope and so can we! Our God is the "God of hope" and He will fill us with all joy and peace as we trust Him and abound in hope through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen!
