Earnestly Contend for the Faith

As you know if you join us for CBM Today on a regular basis we are teaching a short series on the essentials of the faith. We launched this series by building on the famous verse found in the book of Jude.

The Bible says, “Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ” (Jude 3-4).

There is a constant lurking danger for local churches and larger elements of the body of Christ to depart from the faith. Satan’s ministers transform themselves into angels of light (2 Corinthians 11:13-15) and proceed as grievous wolves to devour the flock (Acts 20:28-31).

Every pastor and every believer needs to be sober minded and on the watch for any drift occurring from the faith. As necessary we must firmly rebuke some that they be sound in the faith (Titus 1:13; 2:2).

I encourage you to learn well those doctrines that are essential to salvation. On those matters let us strive to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace as together we contend for the faith. God bless!
