Flee the Wrath to Come!

As you may recall, John the Baptist was a powerful preacher. He served as the forerunner of our Lord whom he introduced to the world.

As John prepared the way for the Lord's arrival he called the people to repentance. The Scripture records this message from John in Matthew chapter three:

"And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey. Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan, And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance . . . And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire."

John warned the people of his day to flee the wrath of God to come. May I remind you the wrath of God is real. The Bible says in the book of Romans, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness" (Romans 1:18).

Like John the Baptist faithful ministers of the gospel must warn the people of our day to flee the wrath of God to come. It is certain all those who fail to repent and humble their heart before the Lord will perish.

In this hour may we rededicate ourselves to boldly proclaim the gospel is my prayer.
